

DR. CHRISTOPHER LIND BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Christopher Lind, a prominent lay Anglican theologian and ethicist is returning to Niagara to be the keynote presenter at the November Diocesan Synod.

Dr. Christopher Lind is a Senior Fellow of Massey College at the University of Toronto. He has served as Principal of St. Stephen's College in Edmonton and as President of St. Andrew's College in Saskatoon. He recently completed a term as Director of the Toronto School of Theology. Dr. Lind holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from York University in Philosophy and Political Science, a Master of Divinity degree from Trinity College and a PhD in Theology from the University of St. Michael's College specializing in Ethics and Economics. He has authored or co-edited five books in the areas of Ecumenical Social Ethics, Globalization and Agriculture, Mission and Theology. He has served on the Primates Theological Commission and the National Church's Ecojustice Committee.

Dr. Lind is looking forward to being back in Niagara, where he grew up as a member of St. Jude's, Oakville. He will be working with Synod delegates on issues of Ethics, Theology, Scripture and the Environment.